

Notice: Grandstream recognition of ADDCOM compatibility

Please note that ADDCOM headsets have been recognised as compatible with Grandstream phone systems.

ADDCOM has been listed as a recognised provider of Grandstream compatible solutions on the Headset FAQ section of the Grandstream website. All ADDCOM headsets are listed as compatible and the appropriate QD cord for each phone system is also listed.

The inclusion of ADDCOM Headsets on the Grandstream website reinforces the quality and usability of ADDCOM products.

ADDCOM customers using Grandstream systems can visit the Grandstream website to confirm the compatibility of their telephone with ADDCOM headsets. Customers can access the Grandstream Headset FAQ page by visiting the following link:
