Notice: SNOM recognition of ADDCOM compatibility

Please note that ADDCOM headsets have been recognized as compatible with SNOM systems on the official SNOM wiki.

ADDCOM has been listed as a recognized provider of SNOM compatible solutions. All ADDCOM headsets are listed as compatible and the appropriate QD cord for each phone system is also listed on the wiki.

The inclusion of ADDCOM Headsets on the SNOM wiki reinforces the quality and usability of ADDCOM products.

ADDCOM customers using SNOM systems can visit the wiki to confirm the compatibility of their telephone with ADDCOM headsets. Customers can access the ADDCOM section of the SNOM page using the following link:
